Marc Bergevin and Réjean Houle Join Forces in the Third Edition of Partageons la PUCK! to raise funds for Share the Warmth's Youth Programs

Montreal, Thursday, November 8, 2018 — Share the Warmth and Montréal Canadiens General Manager Marc Bergevin have teamed up again this year for the third edition of Partageons la PUCK, a charity hockey event to raise money for Share the Warmth's youth programs. The two teams, coached by Bergevin and former Canadiens player Réjean Houle, will face off at the Saint-Charles Arena (1055 Hibernia, Montreal) this Saturday, November 10, 2018, at noon.

"I continue to be committed to giving back to Point Saint-Charles where I grew up and where I live now. Share the Warmth provides the support children and their families need to get ahead – eating well, employment training, tutoring, music and bursaries to make sure they succeed in school," said Bergevin.

The goal of this Saturday's Partageons la PUCK's is to raise $40,000 for Share the Warmth's youth programs, which include a music program, tutoring and bursaries program, cooking workshops and a school food program. The organization aims to improve food security and health for all, while contributing to the overall development and success of children and youth. Throughout the school year, they provide healthy breakfasts, lunches and snacks to 1,700 children in 17 Montreal schools each week. Share the Warmth is actively involved in the community serving 1,400 people each month at their food bank, as well as 300 children in their music, tutoring and scholarship programs.

Partageons la PUCK kicks off at 10:00 a.m. with a free floor hockey game for neighbourhood youth. Bergevin and Houle will be coaching these future hockey talents before coaching the adults who take to the ice at noon. Marc Bergevin and Share the warmth invite all Montrealers to come out and cheer on a good cause. Admission to watch the adult game is by voluntary donation.
